

CARING FOR CHILDREN WHO HAVE BEEN ABUSED

Overview

This course is ideal for anyone working predominantly with children, including teachers, police, social workers, GPs and youth workers. Training will ensure that delegates are aware of the different types of abuse and the effects which they cause. Delegates will also learn how to identify signs of abuse and provide those children affected with the support and communication they need, building a relationship based on trust and ensuring that no further abuse occurs.

Outline of Programme

- Identifying the signs of abuse in children.
- Categories of abuse; sexual, emotional, domestic, Honour Based Violence (HBV) and neglect.
- Results of abuse such as self-harm, violence and suicide.
- Trust and communication with abused children.
- Legal responsibility – reporting the abuse.
- Mental and physical recovery.
- Safeguarding children against further abuse.

Assessment

The caring for children who have been abused training lasts for 6 hours and delegates may be expected to engage in several group activities. Our experienced trainers will be on hand to help guide participants through these sessions and a certificate will be awarded upon completion.

Cost

Our courses are competitively priced, and we aim to beat any equivalent training quote.
