

DEVELOPING THE ROLE OF ACTIVITIES COORDINATORS

Overview

This course is designed for any staff working within the care sector or looking to become a dedicated care home activities coordinator. Training emphasises the impact that activities have on service users in terms of maintaining, and working on, the skills needed to enjoy a good quality of life. Upon completing this training, delegates will have a greater understanding of what an activities coordinator does and how to involve a service user and their family in the assessment of their needs.

Outline of Programme

- What is an activity coordinator?
- What kind of activities can we introduce to a care setting?
- How should activity coordinators involve service users and family carers in designing and providing activities?
- Developing activities to cater for different people.
- Building self-esteem.
- How to keep up to date and informed about new activities.
- Volunteering and fundraising.

Assessment

Developing the role of Activities Coordinator takes around 3 hours and delegates may be expected to engage in several group activities. Our experienced trainers will be on hand to help guide participants through these sessions and a certificate will be awarded upon completion.

Cost

Our courses are competitively priced, and we aim to beat any equivalent training quote.
