

LONE WORKING AWARENESS

Overview

Lone workers are a high-risk group and their safety is not only important to them but paramount to the success of any organisation employing them. Lone working awareness training has been designed to highlight the issues facing lone workers and to inspire confidence through teaching best practice. Delegates will come away from this course understanding the risks to personal safety that lone workers face as well knowing what they can do to make sure they stay safe.

Outline of Programme

- Who are lone workers?
- What are the legal obligations?
- Assessment, identification and control of risk.
- Best safety practices and how to lower risk.
- Supervision.

Assessment

Lone working awareness training takes around 3 hours and delegates may be expected to engage in several group activities. Our experienced trainers will be on hand to help guide participants through these sessions and a certificate will be awarded upon completion.

Cost

Our courses are competitively priced, and we aim to beat any equivalent training quote.
