

WORKING WITH SEX OFFENDERS

Overview

This course is ideal for those working with sex offenders and their families, or those in the care industry who are involved with the safeguarding of vulnerable people. Delegates will gain insight into what is considered 'sexual abuse' as well as an understanding of the ways in which offenders justify their actions. The course provides delegates with the skills, knowledge and confidence to safely intervene in order to prevent further abuse.

Outline of Programme

- What defines sexual abuse?
- Long- and short-term effects on the victim.
- Thought processes and reasoning of sexual offenders.
- Treatment options for sexual offenders.
- What is the role of specialist services?

Assessment

The working with sex offenders training lasts for 3 hours and delegates may be expected to engage in several group activities. Our experienced trainers will be on hand to help guide participants through these sessions and a certificate will be awarded upon completion.

Cost

Our courses are competitively priced, and we aim to beat any equivalent training quote.

Important Information

- The training venue should be quiet and undisturbed.
- Staff should not be expected to be on duty.

- Staff attending should remain for the entire length of the session.
- Flexible dates, call to book a day that suits you.